

THE COMFIEST NON-TOXIC BACK-TO-SCHOOL CLOTHING PICKS

Back-to-school shopping season is here, and comfort is non-negotiable in our house, for the kids heading back to class and honestly, for us too.

Here is what is going in the cart this year.

PICK 01

MATE THE LABEL

The comfiest back-to-school tees, sweatpants, and sweatshirts we have found. Made from organic cotton with clean, low-impact dyes, so the everyday basics touching your kid's skin all day are actually soft and simple. Check them out in mom and dad sizes too, the whole family can match on the first day of school.

PICK 02

Q FOR QUINN KIDS UNDERWEAR & SOCKS

The basics nobody thinks about until the drawer is empty. Q for Quinn's underwear and socks are made with GOTS-certified organic cotton, so what is against the skin all day at school is soft, breathable, and free of the extra stuff conventional basics are treated with. Restocking the whole drawer before the first bell.

TARGET

Organic cotton is still our top recommendation, and always our best option. But we know that's not always possible for every budget. Target's 100% cotton tees are a solid way to bridge the gap: still a big step up from the polyester basics that fill most back-to-school racks, at a price that's easy to say yes to.

Priced on sale right now for $3.50!
